

THOMAS PERRI

Senior Business Relationship Manager

631.924.8000 ext. 8418

Thomas Perri joined Suffolk Federal in 2013, as Senior Business Relationship Manager and is responsible for growth and retention of business accounts through sales, service and relationship building. He is instrumental in providing Suffolk Federal financial solutions, business services and products, and commercial lending expertise to business members. Perri brings more than 20 years of business banking experience to Suffolk Federal, specializing in business banking with medical, dental, accounting and legal practices.

A graduate in Business Administration from Long Island University/C.W. Post, Perri has been the recipient of multiple achievement awards from previous employers. He is affiliated with the Long Island Commercial Network, the New York Medical Group Management Association, Institute of Management Accountants, Long Island Metro Business Action, Long Island Real Estate Group and the New York State Society of CPAs.